CHIEF SECRETARY.
14 NOV. 1928

Sir,

With reference to the marginally noted Government Orders issuing revised rules for the guidance of appointing officers etc., I have the honour to state that the Deputy Commissioner is the Unit Officer for the marginally noted Departments and a consolidated list of vacancies is required to be maintained in respect of vacancies arising in all of them.

7 5771-830- C.R.B. 5-26-1 dated 10th June 1927.
H 67-126/ C.R.B. 5-26-4 dated 8th July 1927.

1. Revenue(including Judicial in the Deputy Commissioner's Office)
2. Excise.
3. Income-tax.
4. Police.
5. Municipalities.
6. Registration.
7. Special Courts.

2. The proportions prescribed for Departments in which the 50 per cent limit is reached and for those in which the said limit is not attained being different, it seems to me that the maintenance of a consolidated list of vacancies will not be useful and that it is necessary to maintain a list for each Department.

3. In these circumstances I request clear instructions as to how the consolidated list should be maintained.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,
Chitaldrug District.

rule 6 (iii) Madras Recruitment (General) Rules

According to G.O. No.3-62/C.R.B.dated 9th October 1927, the Deputy Commissioners of Districts are Unit Officers for purposes of appointments in their Districts. In G.O.No. 1039-1338/C.R.B.5-28-1, dated 31st July 1928, it has been laid down that all Municipalities of Bangalore and Mysore and the Municipalities other than the two City Municipalities for which non-official gentlemen are Presidents - should be regarded as included in the Units of the respective Deputy Commissioners of Districts.

2. According to the above orders, the Unit of the Deputy Commissioner of a District comprises not only the revenue establishment of the District but also the establishments of the other Departments such as those noted in the margin and of the offices of the Special Magistrates. According to G.O.No.5771-830/ C.R.B. 5-26-1, dated 10th June 1927, the number of vacancies available for direct recruitment in a Department (1) to be filled up on general considerations of merit and (2) to be reserved only for candidates of Backward Communities is 1 out of 3 or 1 out of 4 vacancies, according as the representation of Backward Communities in service therein has or has not, reached the limit of 50 per cent of the total strength respectively.

Excise, Income-tax and Registration &c.

3. The rule of recruitment in the Police Department under the Deputy Commissioners of Districts is that vacancies in the grade of Daffedars and Sergeants should be filled up by promotion and direct recruitment in equal equal proportions. (Vide G.O.No.P.197-9 Pol: 194-27-2 dated 10th July 1928).

4. It has come to the notice of Government that there is diversity of practice in the several Districts in the matter of registering vacancies in the Units of the --- Deputy Commissioners of Districts and classifying them into General and Special vacancies in accordance with G.O.No. 465-664/C.R.B.4-28-2 dated 5th September 1928 and these to be filled up by promotion and direct recruitment under para 3 (b) of G.O.No.E.... 2093-172/E.A.14-21-7 dated 28th November 1921.

5. With a view to ensure uniformity,---- Government direct that three separate registers be maintained by Deputy Commissioners for the purpose of registering vacancies arising in (1) the establishments of the Revenue, Judicial, Excise, Income-tax and Registration Departments of the Districts including the establishments of the Taluk and Sub-division offices/(2) in the Municipalities included in the Unit of the Deputy Commissioner and (3) in the Police establishment of Daffedars and sergeants. The maintenance of three separate registers will it is hoped -- facilitate the classification of vacancies and their disposal according to the standing orders applicable to each case.

By Order,

Chief Secretary to Government.
